Letter of Appreciation

It is indeed gratifying to know that you are among the seven students of Lawrence School, Sanawar who had conquered Mt. Everest on 21st May, 2013.

I convey my hearty congratulations to you for successfully undertaking an arduous and challenging task at such a young age. It is indeed an act of courage and valour to embark upon such an adventurous journey which would inspire and motivate other young mountaineers.

I hope you shall bring many more laurels and make your country proud.
Blessings and best wishes for all your future endeavours.

(Urmila Singh)

A team of four students of Lawrence School Sanawar who conquered Mount Everest recently called on Smt Urmila Singh, Governor here today. They were accompanied by their parents and Headmaster Shri Praveen Vasisht.

Smt Urmila Singh congratulated the Sanawar Everest Team for its adventurous expedition and bringing laurels to the school and state as well. She said that such expeditions go a long way in building confidence among youth besides ensuring their personality development. She appreciated the task undertaken by the students and hoped for more achievements in future.

Governor also honoured the Sanawar Everest team and awarded them appreciation letters on the occasion.

Shri Praveen Vasisht informed the Governor that Lawrence School Sanawar was the first school in the world to sponsor students for Mount Everest expedition and added that the team consisted of youngest members in Asia, who ever scaled the heights of Mount Everest and it was a record in itself.

The students who were part of the Sanawar Everest Team, Prithviraj Singh Chahal, Ajay Sohal, Hakikat S Grewal, and Fateh S Brar apprised the Governor about the arduous journey and their experiences while undertaking the challenging task. They conquered Mount Everest on 21st May, 2013.
