

The winning team with the trophy at Lawrence School at Sanawar on Saturday.

Lawrence School wins declamation contest

OUR CORRESPONDENT

SANAWAR, SEPTEMBER 15

Lawrence School, Sanawar, bagged the overall trophy for an inter-school English declamation competition held at Sanawar where teams, including Army Public School, Dagshai, Daly College, Indore, MGD Girls School, Jaipur, Rashtriya Military School, Chail, St George's College, Mussoorie, St Mary's Convent, Kasauli, and YPS, Patiala, participated, besides the host.

The first, second and third consolation prizes were bagged by Insiya Raja (Daly College), Yuhina Sangha (MGD Girls School) and Jigisha Gajanan (St. Mary's Convent), respectively. Vagmita Singh (MGD Girls School), Mannat Tipnis and Anjali Sharma (Lawrence School), won the first, second, and third individual positions, respectively.

The topics included "There are no parking places on the road to success", "Human dignity is independent of national borders" and "Imagination is more important than Knowledge".

Meera Mohanti, Deputy Commissioner, Solan, was the chief guest who also gave away the prizes. While addressing the gathering she urged students to broaden their horizons. Headmaster Praveen Vasisht also spoke.