

The Lawrence School, Sanawar

Sanawar Lit Fest - 2016

In an endeavor to create an opportunity for the youth of today to acquaint them with the mystique of their roots and to encourage them to read, understand and interact on the magnitude of Indian Mythology The Lawrence School, Sanawar hosted its first Literary Festival on the 23rd of October, 2016.

The festival began with a panel discussion by four distinguished panelists followed by an Inter-Active Session. The panelists were Prof. Roma Chatterji from Delhi University, Prof. Chetan Singh, director IAS, Shimla, Prof. (Dr.) Ramesh KuntalMegh, Retd. Head of Hindi Faculty, Punjab University and Prof. (Dr.) Tulsi Raman from HPU. Shri Sita Ram Mardi, IPS, Director General Home Guards, General Commandant Civil Defence & Fire Services, HP graced the occasion as the chief guest.

The second session saw an interesting Literary Quiz in which six schools had qualified for the final round after the preliminary round. This was followed by presentations on Critical Appreciation of Books by all participating school teams. The results are as follows:

Book Critique

First Position The Lawrence School, Sanawar represented by Zainab & Aadya Gupta of XII , NGD

Second Position Welham Girls' School, Dehradun

Third Position St. Kabir School, Chandigarh.

Literary Quiz

First Position Welham Girls' School, Dehradun

Second Position Doon School, Panchkula

Third Position St. Luke's Sr. Secondary School, Solan.

A Book Fair was also organized for the school on 22nd & 23rd October as a part of this Literary Festival.