10th Inst. U.S. it seems to be that there are no vacancies for children at present.

The fact of the admission of his boys by the Committee of Guardians will be easily explained to him.

No promise can however be made and it is needless for Mr Everett to address us any further on the subject of the admission of his sons their case not appearing to have a claim for special consideration more than many
