Dear Sir,

My brother, Mr. G. H. Curtis, late of the Public Works Department, and now a Sapper in the Royal Engineers at Buxton, Derbyshire, left me in guardianship of his three little girls, who have been boarders in the Convent at Murree. I should be happier about them if you could take them into Sanawar.

I had written to my brother about having the children put into Sanawar, and he has concluded that I am acting without waiting for his reply. I enclose a portion of a letter received from my sister, Mrs White Manora, in which reference is made to the children going to Sanawar. If you have any vacancies and can possibly do so I shall be grateful if you will take them in for me.
