The Guides under Miss Robinson, Miss Hooper and Miss Platten and Sparrowhawks under Mr. Roe will leave at an hour to be announced later.

The School Quartermaster will detail the necessary servants for the two camps and will arrange for a branch of the Tuck Shop to be opened there.

All ranks should realise that the holding of the camp is a privilege for which permission has to be sought every year, and that the continuance of the camp depends on the continuance of the goodwill of those Indians on whose land the camp is sited. Standing crops and irrigation waterways must be treated with the greatest respect, and all Indian houses are out of bounds.

On no account will boys be allowed to take pellet firing air rifle to camp with them.

Roaming bounds may be granted at the discretion of the officer in charge of the camp, and the mid-day meal issued as a haversack ration. All Indian villages, however, are out of bounds, as are also Dagshai, Sabathu and Dharampore.

No. 223, LIVESTOCK—The practice of keeping birds and other pets must cease. The Principal was astounded at the number of such creatures to be found not only in the vicinity of the boys quarters but actually in the dormitories themselves; he is much displeased that those in charge of the various dormitories should, by their slackness, have failed to discourage this practice, which has no authority whatsoever. The cages in which the creatures were kept were for the most part inadequate and dirty, thus inflicting hardship on the birds so confined and being a possible source of infection to the whole of Sanawar. In the interests of the community the Principal feels obliged to prohibit the keeping of pets entirely.

Owners must take prompt steps to release or dispose of their pets. There will be a general inspection next month and all livestock found in the neighbourhood of quarters will be destroyed.

No. 241, HATS—A number of cases of slight fever is being admitted to hospital and this is attributable, probably, to exposure to the sun. Greater care is necessary in the matter of wearing hats during the hotter parts of the day; while hats should not be necessary for school, they are most essential for games and for watching swimming, for instance. Boys and girls should not stand or sit in the sun at this time of the year, for any length of time, with the head exposed; this applies especially to those who have recently arrived from England.

Will the Chief Instructor and Head Matrons please impress this on those in their charge.

No. 242, PLAY—There will be a rehearsal of Acts IV and V on Tuesday at 2-15 in Gaskell Hall.

No. 243, CINEMA—School Order No. 220 has apparently been misinterpreted and taken to imply that any member of the school may go to the Cinema any Saturday. The rule, however, is as follows:—

Only those of Upper IVth and above may go to the Cinema and then only on the last Saturday of the month.

Permission must invariably be obtained by individual boys and girls wishing to go to the Cinema; there is no question of any prescriptive right. Permission will be withheld if the weather is threatening, the film unsuitable or recent misbehaviour makes such a step necessary.

Exceptions to the above rule are in the case of visiting parents when an occasional relaxation may be permitted and also when a film of educational interest is being shown. In the latter case, the Principal will issue general instructions.

No. 244, SCHOOLS—Reference School Order No. 234 current.

Non-conformist children should be at the Principal's Library at 5 o'clock on Tuesday.

No. 245, SWIMMING—There must be no more swimming in the Girls Tank until the water is changed; in the Boys Tank swimming is restricted to those selected by Mr. Wiles.

Physical Training periods must be used in some other way.

NOTICES.

Brigadier Hall, who, as senior officer present, took the salute last Wednesday, has been kind enough to express his appreciation as follows:—

I was very much struck with the efficiency with which yesterdays "Trooping of the Colour" was carried out. Many others have told me how very much they enjoyed the parade and how taken they were with the way it was carried through.

The steadiness in the ranks, the handling of arms and the marching were all excellent. I congratulate you all.

Extract from the letter from Brigadier V. H. B. Majendie, D.S.O., Director of Military Training, deputed by the Chief of the General Staff to represent him at the Trooping of the Colour in his own unavoidable absence:

"It was indeed a delightful time and I have taken away a very happy impression of Sabawar. I was immensely struck by the happy atmosphere of the School while the Parade itself was astounding."

The Durrant Society will hold a debate on Sunday in Parker Hall at eight o'clock; subject:—

"That this House considers that the young are much to be pitied".

No. 415, AWARDS—

1. Durrant Cup for Literature.

I propose to use this award in future for the stimulation of diligent reading and intelligent writing throughout the school.

The work to be done for this will be two-fold:—

- (A) An original essay, poem, or parody; or a free criticism of any book which the competitor has read or film which the competitor has seen.
- (B) A paper containing passages and characters from well-known books which the competitor will be expected to identify and comment on.

The work should be well within the capacity of any member of the Upper School who has read widely and intelligently; "B" will be set on a day to be arranged later and it is hoped that most of the Upper School will attempt it even if they do not submit anything under "A".

2. Herbert-Edwardes Award for Religious Knowledge.

1st prize ...Rs. 21/-; 2nd prize ...Rs. 14/-; 3rd prize ...Rs. 7/-

This will be awarded on the results of a paper to be attempted by the whole of the Upper School on September 5th. The paper will contain a hundred questions designed to test:

- (a) intelligent reading of the Bible
- (b) intelligent listening to the Bible when read
- (c) intelligent participation in the Chapel Services.

Roman Catholic pupils may take the paper or not as they choose but it could be answered by anyone who has followed the Chapel Services, for instance, with attention and intelligence.

3. Hodson Horse Prize.

This prize will be awarded to the writer of the best imaginary dialogue between Sir Henry Lawrence and General Hodson. In this imaginary conversation, Lawrence will unfold to Hodson his ambition to found an asylum for the children of British soldiers, his ideas on its aim and character and on the ideal Principal; finally he will ask Hodson to superintend its building. General Hodson, to whom should be allotted not less than a third of the dialogue, should elicit some of this information from his friend by questioning him.

Extra marks will be given for a style of conversation in keeping with the character of the two men and with the time in which they lived. The whole should not greatly exceed one thousand words and may be done in the candidates own time; entries will close at the end of September.
