THE LAWRENCE SCHOOL ORDERS.

SANAWAR, 3RD MARCH, 1950.

No. 7, A. V. SCHOOL—This School was founded more than 80 years ago and today, because of the sympathy of the Ministry of Education, is in a stronger position than ever before. V. School without further delay. It is the duty of parents to give their children a chance in life and the first step in this direction is the provision of a sound education. I should be glad if the Quartermaster would have this Order made known to all Staff concerned.

No. 63, HAIR—The hair of the children in the Boys' School strikes me as being thoroughly unruly and unkept. Though we are no longer a Military School there is no reason why hair should not be well groomed and trimmed. At the moment, quite obviously, the barber has not enough work to do. Would Housemasters please see to it that side whiskers are removed forthwith and that hair above the ears and at the back of the head is kept short and neat. These remarks do not, of course, apply to Sikh boys who will, nevertheless, keep both their hair and turbans tidy.

If held, the Colts match will be played at Sanawar this year.

THE LAWRENCE SCHOOL ORDERS.

SANAWAR, 2ND JUNE, 1950.

No. 96, STORES—Staff are reminded that no action can be taken on requests for furniture addressed direct to the Assistant Secretary. All such requests must, in the first instance, be sent to the Office.

No. 97, HOSPITAL—Visiting hours will henceforth be from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. It will be the duty of the R. M. O. to enforce this Order. No hospital in the world allows indiscriminate visits from outsiders. The R. M. O. will also maintain a strict vigilance over the cleanliness of the School hospital and will see to it that food is neither imported nor strewn about the hospital precincts. It is absolutely essential that the high standard of cleanliness which has been maintained at the hospital for so many years be continued. Visitors can be requested, quietly but firmly, to refrain from throwing either paper, banana peels, mango stones or anything else in the vicinity of the hospital. I have been greatly distressed at what I have seen recently.

No. 98, ESTATE—The responsibility of looking after the School estate is vested in every Sanawarian, Staff and child alike. There can be no halfway measures about cleanliness and I want children in all Departments to be "cleanliness conscious". As I walk round the estate I see bits of paper lying around, mango stones thrown down khuds, banana peels on pavements. It would be idle to pretend that I am at all happy about this. Our Sanawar is a heritage which we must preserve at all costs and I look to Heads of Departments to see to it that our rules about the cleanliness of the estate are carried out to the smallest detail.

No. 99, DOGS—Children must be warned to leave stray dogs severely alone. No encouragement should be given to them. I have noticed a black dog near the B. S. kitchen and I understand that it is fed by the boys. This must cease immediately. Cases of rabies have been reported in these hills and it is criminal folly to encourage stray dogs.

No. 100, PARENTS' ROOMS—Parents' Rooms are meant for Parents. The School does not cater for relatives or children. If children write home about accommodation at the School this should be made perfectly clear. Further, accommodation at the Parents' Rooms will be reserved, at most, for two days. Bookings must be made in advance and through the School Office. The Assistant Secretary will in no circumstances allow parents the use of the rooms without sanction from the Office.

An Officer belonging to Central Service Class I, II or Class III who held a lien or a suspended lien on a permanent pensionable post under the Government of India or a Provincial Government or a Local Fund administered by Government on the 30th September, 1938, and is holding a lien or a suspended lien on a permanent pensionable post under the Government of India on the date of issue of the pension rules (17th April, 1950,) may opt for his/her existing pension rules as a whole. The option must be exercised in writing and once exercised it will be final.
