SANAWAR, 1ST APRIL, 1955.

No. 53, HISTORICAL—For sometime now I have been puzzled as to the exact date on which the School came into being. The first report by the Rev. W. J. Parker merely states that 14 children of both sexes arrived in April, 1847. Hodson, after whom our Hodson Runs are named, was responsible for the original building work at the School. In a letter dated April 1st, 1847, he describes his work at “the new Hill” School. In his next letter, written “a few days later,” he mentions the arrival of Mrs. George Lawrence whose tent was pitched close to his. Thus, it is clear that the School opened in April, 1847, even though the first entries in our Registers are dated May 1st, 1847. Henry Lawrence, however, in a letter dated the 7th March, 1847, to the Editor of the Delhi Gazette, says “I have arranged for opening the Institution on the 15th April”. That date would seem clear enough and I think that the 15th April might well be celebrated each year as “Foundation Day”.

No. 54, CLUB—There will be a Tin-and-bottle Tennis Tournament on Saturday, 2nd April, starting at 2 p. m. All members of the Club are invited to take part. Tea will be provided.
