

THE LAWRENCE SCHOOL, SANAWAR® ART WORKSHOP

Date: 14th March, 2024

Subject: Art Workshop

Resource Person: Eminent Artist -Mr. Madan Lal

Mr. Madan Lal is an artist based in India whose paintings have been featured in solo exhibitions nationally. He describes his multi-layered and vibrant works as being conveying life's numerous and multifaceted motifs which are drawn from internal and external journeys. Mr. Lal's inspirations are diverse and include Sufism, music, dance, Mayan culture, mystic journeys, urban emotion, etc. His distinctive compositions are often created using acrylics on canvas.

Brushing Creativity

On 15th March The Lawrence School, Sanawar organized a successful painting workshop by eminent Artist Mr. Madan Lal. The workshop, held in the school's auditorium (Barne Hall) attracted students from various grades. In this workshop, Mr. Madan Lal took us all on a mesmerising journey in the world of art, where brush strokes met imagination and colour danced in harmony.

It was inspiring to see our entire school come together to see the guest artist's demonstration on the stage. This event, aims to provide a special competency learning session for young artists, to explore their creativity with using day to day connection with the nature around us.

In his inspiring words “Art is a playground of experimentation where mistakes are celebrated as opportunities for discovery and where rules are meant to be broken”

Glimpses of the Workshop

A warm welcome by the Headmaster Mr. Himmat Singh Dhillon

The artist at work

Mr. Madan Lal interacting with the students

In conversation with Mr. Ravi Kumar the D.H. M

Group photograph with the Headmaster Mr. Himmat Sing Dhillon and the D. H. M- Mr. Ravi Kumar

The Artist- Mr. Srikanta Goswami and Mr. Madan Lal