

SNAMUN'24

The students of The Lawrence School, Sanawar under the guidance of the Faculty of Humanities, came up with the 7th edition of The Lawrence School, Sanawar Model United Nations Conference – SNAMUN'24. This event that was conducted from 8th August to 10th August was a highly anticipated one, for the delegates, as they geared up to provide their ideas and opinions. The Seventh edition of Model United Nations Conference witnessed over 100 student- delegates from 9 schools of the country. The theme of the conference was, "Quo Vadimus".

Over the course of three days, the conference brought together students from leading schools across the country who engaged in insightful discussions and collaborative efforts aimed at building a safer, more inclusive world.

The theme of the conference was: Quo Vadimus. A Latin phrase which translates to “Where are we going?”, a question which holds the utmost importance in this era.

In today's uncertain world, marked by instability in geopolitics, global institutions, environmental concerns like climate change and the global economic situation, the theme for this SNAMUN offer a crucial learning space, by providing a diverse range of committee topics and agendas, ranging from the Parliament of the United Kingdom to the AI Advisory Board, SNAMUN provided a platform that challenges delegates at every level of experience.

The guest of honour for the opening ceremony was Ms. Jasteena Dhillon , a reputed lawyer who has taken part in various UN campaigns. The conference officially began when Secretary General Gayatri Sud declared the conference open.

Aayan Gautam won the Best Delegate award for his “outstanding diplomatic skills, critical thinking, and impressive contributions to committee sessions.” in the Commission on Crime Prevention and Justice.

Srishti Priya also won the best delegate award for her exemplary skills as a delegate in the European Union committee.

Siya Shukla won the Best Delegate award for her amazing performance in the UK Parliament India Cabinet.

Dhairya Sukhwani, Ishana Pathania and Vardaan Varenayam were awarded with the High Commendation Award in the committee on the UN Advisory board on A.I, UK Parliament India Cabinet and UK Parliament British Cabinet respectively for their “exceptional prowess in diplomacy, negotiation, and strategic thinking.

Special Mentions were awarded to Aarav Maini in UNGA, Manasvi Badola in UN Advisory board on A.I and Kirisha Arora in UK Parliament British Cabinet.

Verbal Mentions were awarded to Arjun Sinha and Harshil Gupta in UN Advisory board on A.I
Rohan Sharma in Commission on Crime Prevention and Justice.
Kuber Singla in European Union, Arnav Gupta and Abhya Atal in UNGA.

Siddham Goyal of St Xavier, Sirsa won the Secretary General's Best Delegate.

The Best School Delegation award was conferred to The Lawrence School, Sanawar but being the host school the trophy was passed on to the runners up Mayo College, Ajmer. “The delegation showcased unparalleled teamwork, effective communication, and a commitment to driving positive change on a global scale,”

The Chief Guest for the closing ceremony was Mr. Ashish Butail an alumnus of Bishop Cotton School, Shimla who gave a heartwarming address which consisted of various anecdotes from his life as a student.

Finally, the conference was declared closed by the Secretary General.

